Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board Statements on the Nomination of Travis LeBlanc

March 29, 2022

Statement from Chair Sharon Bradford Franklin and Board Members Ed Felten and Beth A. Williams:

“We congratulate Board Member Travis LeBlanc on his re-nomination. His continued service would be a valuable contribution to the Board’s mission of ensuring the Executive Branch’s efforts to prevent terrorism are balanced with the need to safeguard privacy and civil liberties. We wish him the best in the confirmation process.”

Statement from Board Member Travis LeBlanc:

“It is an honor to be renominated to the Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board. I am grateful to President Biden and Vice-President Harris for their confidence in my continued service to the nation. If reconfirmed by the Senate, I look forward to working with my fellow Board Members and our talented agency staff to meet our mission of safeguarding privacy and civil liberties while protecting the nation from terrorism, both domestic and foreign.”
