STATEMENT BY BOARD MEMBER BETH WILLIAMS ON THE 25th ANNIVERSARY OF THE 9/11 TERRORIST ATTACKS

WASHINGTON, DC – Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board Member Beth Williams has released the following statement:

“Today we mark the 25th anniversary of one of the darkest days in American history. We remember the victims of the horrific terrorist attacks against our country. We honor the memory of the thousands of innocent Americans who perished.”

“This solemn day is particularly meaningful for the Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board, which was created based on a recommendation of the 9/11 Commission. Our agency’s mission is to ensure that the federal government’s efforts to prevent terrorism are balanced with the need to protect privacy and civil liberties. Today, we renew our commitment to that task and pledge to continue doing our part to keep America safe and free for generations to come.”
