I. Senior Official for Plain Writing:

The Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board (“PCLOB” or “Board”) has designated the General Counsel as the Senior Official for Plain Writing. Since the PCLOB is a microagency, there are no other Plain Language Coordinators.

II. Explain what specific types of agency communications have you released by making them available in a format that is consistent with the Plain Writing Guidelines.

<td>Semi-Annual Reports for the reporting periods ending March and September 2016, posted on website</td>
<td>The Semi-Annual Reports are mandated by the Board’s enabling statute. They inform the President, Congress, and public about the Board’s activities.</td>
<td>In its Semi-Annual Reports, the PCLOB uses plain writing to explain its activities in a clear, concise manner. Plain writing also helps enhance transparency.</td>

<tr>
<td>Update on Section 215 and 702 Recommendations, February 5, 2016, posted on website</td>
<td>The Board provided a public update on the Government’s progress in implementing the PCLOB’s recommendations from its 215 and 702 reports.</td>
<td>Plain writing helps describe complex government activities in a way that is easily accessible to the public.</td>

III. Inform agency staff of Plain Writing Act’s requirements

This past year, the General Counsel has:

a. Briefed Board Members and PCLOB staff on the Plain Writing Act;

b. Reviewed Board reports and other public documents prepared by PCLOB staff for compliance with the Plain Writing Act; and

c. Started to update the plain writing training for PCLOB staff.

IV. Training

When new employees join the PCLOB, they review the requirements of the Plain Writing Act. They also review the Federal Plain Language Guidelines. In addition, employees receive annual training, which will take place prior to the end of FY 2016.

V. Ongoing compliance

Under its enabling statute, the PCLOB must inform the public of its activities. The General Counsel reviews Board reports and other public documents prior to their release in order to ensure compliance with the Plain Writing Act.

VI. Agency’s plain writing website

The PCLOB’s plain writing website is accessible at https://www.pclob.gov/plain-writing-act.html. The website provides a summary of the Plain Writing Act’s requirements, identifies the General Counsel as the Senior Official for Plain Writing, and contains links to various documents and websites related to plain writing. The PCLOB website also provides a contact email address for comments on plain writing.

VII. Conclusion

The PCLOB is committed to plain writing in its reports and other public documents. Please send any comments or questions regarding plain writing to info@pclob.gov.
