No FEAR Act Report
Fiscal Year (FY) 2022

INTRODUCTION

In 2002, Congress passed the Notification and Federal Employee Antidiscrimination and Retaliation Act of 2002 (No FEAR Act), Public Law 107-174, 5 U.S.C. § 2301, et seq., to hold Federal agencies accountable for violations of Federal antidiscrimination and whistleblower protection laws.

In addition, the No FEAR Act requires that agencies provide public notice of relevant statistics on agency websites, including the number of Federal court cases involving discrimination that were filed, pending, and resolved and other information on Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) complaints.

The No FEAR Act also requires each Federal agency to report annually to Congress on its complaints of discrimination, Federal court cases involving discrimination, and activities to prevent discrimination and retaliation.

In doing so, Federal agencies report on eight things:

1. The number of court cases arising under the antidiscrimination laws and authorities included in the No FEAR Act;
2. The status and disposition of those cases;
3. Judgment Fund reimbursements, separately identifying the aggregate amount of such reimbursements attributable to the payment of attorneys' fees, if any;
4. The number and type of disciplinary actions related to discrimination, retaliation, harassment, or related infractions;
5. Year-end summary data related to EEO complaint activity;
6. A detailed description of the PCLOB's policy for taking disciplinary actions against employees for discrimination or prohibited personnel practices;
7. An analysis of the information provided in this report, including an examination of trends, causal analysis, practical knowledge gained, and actions planned or taken to improve compliance or civil rights programs; and
8. Validation of PCLOB's plan to train employees on their rights under the No FEAR Act.

Pursuant to statutory requirements, PCLOB provides the No FEAR Act annual report to the following Congressional offices:

- Speaker of the House of Representatives
- President pro tempore of the Senate
- Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs
- House of Representatives Committee on Oversight and Reform
- Senate Committee on Appropriations
- House of Representatives Committee on Appropriations
- Senate Committee on Judiciary
- House of Representatives Committee on Judiciary
- Senate Select Committee on Intelligence
- House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence

Pursuant to statutory and regulatory requirements, PCLOB also provides this report to the following members of the Executive Branch:

- Chair, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
- Attorney General, U.S. Department of Justice
- Director, U.S. Office of Personnel Management

PCLOB has implemented an EEO policy, a supplemental EEO Question and Answer guidance document, and an Anti-Harassment policy. These policies and guidance documents prohibit discrimination and harassment based on a protected class or whistleblower activity and prohibit retaliation for exercising rights on either basis. The PCLOB is working with the EEOC to update these policies.

The PCLOB is also completing its re-certification for the Office of Special Counsel's 2302(c) certification program, which ensures that the PCLOB prevents prohibited personnel practices, complies with applicable civil service laws against these practices, and informs employees about these practices. The PCLOB continues to comply with all related policies and guidance.

The PCLOB is developing a disciplinary policy to handle workplace conduct, including a table of penalties. The policy includes the provision of appropriate disciplinary actions for employees who have engaged in discrimination or prohibited personnel actions.
