AGENCY MISSION

The Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board's responsibilities comprise two basic functions: oversight and advice. In its oversight role, the Board is authorized to continually review the implementation of executive branch policies, procedures, regulations, and information sharing practices relating to efforts to protect the nation from terrorism, to ensure that privacy and civil liberties are protected. The Board is also authorized to continually review any other actions of the executive branch relating to efforts to protect the nation from terrorism, to determine whether such actions appropriately protect privacy and civil liberties and whether they are consistent with governing laws, regulations, and policies regarding privacy and civil liberties. In its advice role, the Board is authorized to review proposed legislation, regulations, and policies related to efforts to protect the nation from terrorism (as well as the implementation of new and existing policies and legal authorities), to advise the President and executive branch agencies on ensuring that privacy and civil liberties are appropriately considered in their development and implementation.

The incumbent will be expected to accomplish assigned functions on their own initiative, independently formulate requirements, responsibly allocate available resources, and develop, recommend, and monitor implementation of agency policies and procedures. Prior experience, working on legal and policy issues related to privacy and civil liberties in the context of, counterterrorism or other national security matters is strongly preferred. Prior experience working on issues related to domestic terrorism and prior specialized experience in public policy is preferred. Strong writing skills, proficiency in oral presentation and briefing, and subject matter expertise in privacy, civil liberties, and/or national security (especially counterterrorism) are essential for this position.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Serve as an attorney conducting legal and policy analysis and providing legal expertise to the Board in complex investigations and/or reviews. This includes conducting legal research and legal analyses regarding applicable constitutional, statutory and other legal authorities.
- Lead and work in teams to develop investigative plans, gather information, and conduct research in support of the Board's investigations and reviews.
- Lead and work in teams to review and analyze federal counterterrorism programs pursuant to the Board's mission to ensure that both existing and proposed programs adequately safeguard privacy and civil liberties, including preparing memoranda, making recommendations to the Board, and briefing the Board.
- Lead and assist in drafting Board reports evaluating privacy and civil liberties safeguards in efforts to protect the nation from terrorism and other Board reports to the President, Congress, and the public, as well as drafting congressional testimony, letters, and other documents to carry out the Board's responsibilities.
- Represent the Board in interactions with officials from other departments and agencies of the Federal government, the private sector, and non-governmental organizations, as required.
- Perform other duties as needed to assist the Board in its operations.

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

Must possess a J.D. or LL.B. and be a member in good standing of a state bar or the District of Columbia bar. Documentation must be submitted with application.
